W. J. MURTAGH & CO., PUBLISHERS

S. P. HANSCOM, EDITOR. MONDAY MORNING SEPTEMBER 17, 1866

PRESIDENT'S WELCOME HOME.

We give in another place full details the grand and hearty reception accorded to THE PRESIDENT and his party on their return to the Capital Saturday evening. Such a to the Capital Saturday evening. Such a demonstration was never before witnessed in this city, except, perhaps, on the return of the armies, when crowds of people were attracted hither from all parts of the country. Of the citisens of Washington and the District of Columbia, there has never been so large a turn-out on any public occasion. If The Phesident and his party had not been detained beyond the hour when they were expected, (between five and six o'clock,) they would have witnessed a still more brilliant and gratifying display. Hundreds of ladies were upon the avenues, accompanied by their little children, who were obliged to retire at sundown, but the reception was nevertheless most hearty, cordial, and universal.

In the grand acclaim of welcome that went up from the people here there was no discordant note from either white or black. Upon the protice of the City Hall where the Mayor the protice of the City Hall where the Mayor the provided with the granded party accompanying him returned to this city from Chicago and where received with the greatest enthusiasm. The weather was most favorable for the delargest ever witnessed in this city. Flags were displayed from the top of the City Hall to the residence of Joseph H. Bradley, Esq., opposite. A large flag was displayed from the top of the City Hall to the residence of Joseph H. Bradley, Esq., opposite. A large flag was displayed from the top of the City Hall to the residence of Joseph H. Bradley, Esq., opposite. A large flag was displayed from the top of the City Hall to the residence of Joseph H. Bradley, Esq., opposite. A large flag was displayed from the top of the City Hall to the residence of Joseph H. Bradley, Esq., opposite. A large flag was displayed from the top of the City Hall to the residence of Joseph H. Bradley, Esq., opposite. A large flag was displayed from the top of the City Hall to the residence of Joseph H. Bradley, Esq., opposite. A large flag was displayed from the top of the City Hall to the residence of Joseph H. Bradley, Esq., o demonstration was never before witnessed the portico of the City Hall where the Mayor. received THE PRESIDENT We saw a number of colored people who bore the part of respectful and interested spectators, and in all the vast throngs that pervaded the streets and avenues through which the procession passed we did not hear a mocking sound nor witness a demonstration of disrespect or partizan hatred. It was most truly a hearty and manimous welcome home to THE PRESIDENT.

THE ACCIDENT AT JOHNSTOWN.

We learn, from the special correspondence of the New York Times, that on the occurrence of the deplorable accident at Johnstown, Penn., where a large number of per-sons were killed and wounded by the falling of a bridge when the train containing THE PRESIDENT's party was to arrive at that point, President Jourson, on learning the circum-stances, handed to the person in charge five hundred dollars, to be applied for the imme-diate relief of the sufferers. Among the parties who were killed outright was Mr. HENRY METZORR, a wealthy hotel proprietor, and Miss Letitia Cannon, who graduated at the head of her class on Tuesday last, and was the belle of the town. The scene is described as having been heartrending.

SECRETARY SEWARD.

Mr. SEWARD, who was attacked with cholera morbus during his late tour, was reported to be in a much improved condition last evening and absolutely out of danger. This will be very welcome news to the friends of the Secretary and to the public.

PERSONAL.

in the city yesterday, and had an interview with

VICE ADMIRAL FARRAGUT left town for New York last evening.

The National Theatre.

The National Theatre, (late Grover's,) remod-eled, improved and beautified, will be opened this evening with a grand spectacular drams, the "Ios Witch," in which the most pleasing effects of the modern stage will be illustrated. The Washington public will be amased and delighted when they witness the improvements made in the decorations and accommodations of this theatre. It is now one of the most attractive in the country; and the propriperformance this evening we shall endeavor to describe in full detail the results and effects of the

In our amssement column this morning will be found the east of the leading characters in the new opera to be produced at Wall's Opera House. Signor Scann, M'lle Pauline Carinsa, Signor

One of the most interesting events connected with the stay of the President in St. Louis was the occasion of his visit to the venerable ex-Attorney General of the United States, Hon. Edward Bates. The St. Louis Resultions are

Louis Republican says:
"It is known to most of our citizens that the health of Mr. Bates is very precarious. He is suffering from a disease of the lungs that is liable to produce death at almost any hour. On Sunday, at one o'clock, according to previous arrangement, Captain James B. Eads called at the Lindell Hotel for the to previous the Lindell Hotel for the Eads called at the Lindell Hotel for the President, Secretary Seward, and Secretary Welles, and with them proceeded to the house of Mr. Bates. The latter seemed much affected on seeing his distinguished associates, and thanked them most feelingly for their visit to one who, he said, was adying the seemed with the greatest with the greatest thanked the seemed with the greatest with the greatest thanked the seemed with the seemed with the greatest thanked the seemed with the greatest thanked the seemed with He spoke, however, with the greate man. He spoke, however, with the greatest cheerfulness of his expected dissolution. Having lived three score years and thirteen, he had had three more years than he was entitled to. His remarks to Mr. Seward were exceedingly touching. He had never expected to see him alive again, and this was just so much clear gain for him.

"Mr. Welles he addressed as one who was mark to he he the feet of feet which it is not considered."

having it in his power now to do himself the honor of calling to see him.

"The parting of Mr. Bates and Mr. Seward was exceedingly touching, but the kind words of each cannot be recalled. The eyes of both were moistened, and the deep feelings with which all four of these great statesmen were afflicted will long be remembered by those who witnessed their farewell visit to the revered and honored patriot of Missouri.

Mational Mepublican, RETURN OF THE PRESIDENT

THE RECEPTION ON SATURDAY EVENING Procession SPEECH OF MAYOR WALLACH. REPLY OF THE PRESIDENT.

The Demonstration One of the Largest Ever Witnessed in Washington.

On Saturday evening President Johnson and the distinguished party accompanying him returned to this city from Chicago and the Fudic Buildings and notes the national ensign waved, and every one seemed anxious to do honor to our President. PREPARATIONS FOR THE RECEPTION. By three o'clock in the afternoon the sound of music throughout the city gave no-sound of music throughout the city gave no-tice that the various organizations were forming in line and marching to the City Hall, where the procession was formed. AT THE CITY HALL. The crowd around the building was one of the largest ever witnessed in this city. Ev-ery door and window in the neighboring buildings was filled with ladies. Hundreds of ladies and gratituness occurried the stems of ladies and gentlemen occupied the steps and porticos in front of the City Hall. By half past four o'clock, the various organiza-tions who were to participate in the recep-tion, had arrived, and were being assigned to their positions by the chief marshal and his assignant.

THE POLICE ARRANGEMENTS under Major Richards, were admirable. under Major Rienards, were admirable. One bundred and twenty men, in command of Captain Reed, inspector of the force, assisted by the lieutenants of the several precincts, were stationed about the City Hall and de pot, and preserved excellent order. Major Richards was present, and superintended all were kept busy during the afternoon in forming the line and assigning each association to its position as fixed upon by the committee of arrangements. The chief marshal was Col. James A. Tait; assistants, Capt. Wm. B. Webb, Col. James Y. Davis, Col. Samuel W. Owen, Lieut. Col. Lemuel Towers, Major Robert Clarke, and Capt. P Fisher. THE MARSHALS

FORMATION OF THE LINE.
At five o'clock the line was formed and At the o'clock the line was formed and consisted of cawalry, infantry, marines, the firemen, the various ward organizations, the Oldest Inhabitants, Johnson Departmental Club, and various other associations, a full list of which we give below.

WAITING.

About five o'clock a telegram was received About five o'clock a telegram was received by General Rucker announcing that the Fresident would not leave Baltimore until five o'clock, and consequently would not reach this city before seven. This fact soon gained circulation, but the crowd was not perceptibly diminished, nearly all appearing determined to wait to participate in the reception and honor our Chief Magistrate. Along Indiana avenue, from the City Hall to the depot, were hundreds of carriages filled with men, women and children, aaxiously waiting the approach of the distinguished party.

iously waiting the approach of the distinguished party.

At the scene was one of great enthusiasm. A large crowd had assembled in and about the building, keeping the police and soldiers busy in securing a passage way open for those arriving or doparting in the trains. Upon the arrival of the five o'clock train many supposed the President had come, and all pressed forward to welcome him. A line of sentinels were placed from the curb-stone to the rear of the Depot in order to keep the passage-way open. A few minutes before five o'clock Secretaries Stanton, Browning, and M'Culloch, Postmaster General Randall, Attorney General Stanberry, Acting Secretary Faxon, and Assistant Secretary Hartley with Judge Otto, Assistant Secretary of the Interior, Generals Canby, Emory, Smith, and Thomas arrived at the Depot for the purpose of receiving the distinguished Signor Scann, M'lle Pattine Carina, Signor tennis, Signor Mana, Signor Collett, Signor Panorzi sustain the principal roles. The sales of seats for the performance will begin to-day.

Edward Bates and the President— An Impressive Scene.

One of the most interesting approximate the propose of receiving the distinguished party. After viting some time and having accretained that the President would arrive at seven o'clock, they retired until that hour. About half-past six o'clock the gentlemen above named again appeared at the Depot, and a short time thereafter the building was cleared, preparatory to receiving the Pre cleared, preparatory to receiving the President.

At ten minutes before seven o'clock a sulte from two howitzers on the bill near the depot, in charge of some of the navy yard workmen, announced that the train was approaching, and a few minutes thereafter the train entered the depot, drawn by engine No. 259, in charge of Reuben Zepp, and gaily decorated with flags. Conductor Wm. Butler was in charge of the train. The carriages being at the door, and all things in readiness, the party left the cars, the President leaning on the arm of Thomas E. Lloyd, Esq., president of the Board of Aldermen, and Secretary Welles on the arm of W. W. Moore, Esq., president of the Board of Common Council. Having been seated in the carriages, the distinguished party passed up the line to the City Hall, where the welcoming address was delivered by Mayor Wallach. Along the line as the President passed cheer after cheer was given, and the greatest enthusiasm prevailed.

after cheer was given and the greatest encreedingly touching. He had never exceedingly touching. He had never expected to see him alive again, and this was just so much clear gain for him.

"Mr. Welles he addressed as one who was near to him by the ties of friendship and mutual trial beyond what he could express. He gentlemen who roturned with the spoke to the President as one who had a greater weight of cares and responsibilities than any fifty men in the nation, and thanked God for believing that, he was one of the most worthy that could have been selected to perform his obligations to the whole country.

"The President, at parting assured Mr. Bates that his last interview with him in Washington was fresh in his memory, as well as each word of good advice and encouragement he had then given him, and that he could not express the pleasure it gave of having it in his power now to do himself the honor of calling to see him.

"The parting of Mr. Bates and Mr. Seward were had arrived. He returned to the City Hall, though, with the President. thusiasm prevailed.

Mayor Wallach, with the Mayor of Georgetown and Mayor of Alexandria, occupied positions on the steps at the head of the space.

A few minutes past seven o'clock the President reached the City Hall, leaning on the arm of Alderman Lloyd, and passed up the passage-way, the people standing with uncovered heads as he passed, while cheer after cheer was given. Order having been restored, Mayor Wallach spoke as follows:

SPERCH OF NAYOR WALLACH.

After shaking hands with the President, Mayor Wallach spoke as follows:

MA PRESIDENT: Kvery street has sent forth its resident, every alley its inhabitant, and under almost the very dome of the Capitol, hallowed by memories of noble men and great events, the people of Washington are gathered to tender to you, sir, and the distinguished associates of your journey, an earnest and heartfelt welcome to the home fixed by the Constitution, for which you evines so mach reverence, as your official residence.

How lively a satisfaction this event of your return to their midst occasions your fellow-citizens and neighbors of the metropolis of the Union this multitude of uptarned and anxious countenances. How lively a satisfaction this event of your residence with the whole country, an interest in preserving and showing reverence for the authority of the laws, as well as for what they are now here to show, respect for those who fearlessly and houssity execute them.

Its whole population has, therefore, come out to great you, eager to attest their appreciation of your unimpeachable integrity as a man and public functionary, and that reversnoe which on every principle of national pride, honor, and patriotism is due to your elevated position. It is an occasion which, uniting all in one common feeling carries with it its own gratification in the thoughts which an overy heart and hang on every tougue; and indeed that the people of Washington, comprehending them in all their magnitude, and feeling all their importance, deeply sympathics with you in your efforts to inculeate a spirit of harm my future ourse will be. [A voice....'We sax no better,'' Cheers.]

In returning here in your midst to resume my public duties, I do not return for the purpose of making professions. They would be unmeaning and worthless if my past conduct is not sufficient indication of what my future course will be.

the Union, and the laws of the United States are making upon it. [Grass cheers.]

Though you may occupy a position that precludes your participating in the election of members of Congress or in the legislation of the nation generally, yet, let me say to you, you are an intelligent, particulte community. You have a moral power and indusees which, when manifested, demonstrated, and exercised in a proper direction, is not without avail and effect beyond the limits of the District of Columbia. You are a part of this great whole—the American people; and your great whole—the American people; and your

I have ne speech to make to you to night, but wish simply to give uttercase to the fullness of my heart, and to tender my thanks for this spontaneous manifestation, this cordial welcome you have given to your humble instrument at his return to the discharge of his public duties. Then, through your hunored representative, please accept my thanks for this manifestation of confidence in one who has known you long, and will remain among you for a short time, if life should be spared him. [Cheers.] The President having concluded his remarks, the distinguished party were again escorted to the carriages, when the procession marched in the following order:

THE PROCESSION.

Major G. R. Graham.
Three companies of the Fifth United States cavalry, with their mounted band, under command of Brevet Lieutenant Colonel Wesley Thorn, Secretary.

Espeuta's Band.
The Corporate Authorities of Georgetown, marshaled by Mr. James Goddard.
The Corporate Authorities and a delegation of the citizens of Alexandria, Va.
The Resident Executive Committee of the

Mr. John F. Callan.

The Conservative Army and Navy Union, with a neat badge, and bearing in the line the tattered battle-flag of General Everett's brigade, used in twenty battles in the Southwest, marshaled by Gen. Everett and Engineer Mockabee. (A large number of the members of this association who are members of the Johnson Departmental Club were in line with that association.)

bers of the Johnson Departmental Club were in line with that association.)
Young Men's National Union Club of Georgetown, Linhardt's Band of Baltimore with the Johnson Departmental Club, numbering about 80 members, and marshaled by Major Foster and Mr. Sarmiento.
The National Democratic Association, numbering about 120, with a large flag, marshaled by Col. Florence, W. J. Geary, John Thomas, and W. W. Wallington.
Executive Committee of Irish citizens.

Employees of the Washington Navy Yard, about 600 in number, with John S. Tucker as Chief Marshal, assisted by James M. Dalton and John Sinclair, and composed of the employees in the following named shops; Ship Carpenters, Edward Maston, marshal; Joiners, L. A. Tuell, marshal; Painters, Robert Peake, marshal; Salimakers and Riggers, Edward Casey, marshal; Machinists, A. Tappan, marshal; Boller-makers, G. H. Thompson, marshal; Blacksmiths, Samuel R. Turner, marshal; Plumbers, W. D. Hineline, marshal; Copper Rollers, W. H. Lusby, marshal; Ordnance Machinista, John Robinson, marshal; Ordnance Gunners, J. J. line, marshal; Copper Rollers, W. H. Lusby, marshal; Ordnance Machinists, John Robiniston, marshal; Ordnance Gunners, J. J. Walah, marshal; Ordnance Gunners, J. J. Walah, marshal; Masons, T. W. Mahoney, marshal; Constructing Engineers Office, Samuel Perkins, marshal; Yard Laborers, Wm. Hanna, marshal. The Navy Yard employees had with them two large flags and a number of transparencies bearing the following inscriptions: "Welcome to our Chief Magistrate," "The Workingmen's Friend," "Welcome to our Admiral," (Radford,) "Grant and Farragut; heroes on land and sea." "Honor to our distinguished Secretary; the Navy Yard men respect him." Heald's American Brass Band, with the Arsenal employees, marshaled by Messrs. Mockabee, indermann, McGinnis, Buckley, and Smith, numbering about 300 men, with flags and transparencies. Employees of the Government Printing Office, numbering 150 men, marshaled by Captain P. H. Dubant, bearing the State flag used by the First Regiment with which Gen. Grant went to the field.

Employees of the Treasury Extension, marshaled by Hiram Brown, with two flags in the line and a mammoth one on a fourhorse wagon.

Fifth Ward Johnson Union Club, marin the line and a mammots one on a low-horse wagon.

Fifth Ward Johnson Union Club, mar-shaled by Messra. W. A. Mulloy and T. H. Robinson, headed by martial music and car-rying two fine flags in the line, numbering ver one hundred. Sixth Ward Johnson Union Club, T. A Sixth Ward Johnsen Union Club, T. A. Tolson, marshal, with several flags in the line, numbering about 150.

Spanier's Band.

The United States Steam Fire Brigade, under Chief Engineer Wm. Dickson, with the engine and hose carriage of the Meigs engine, all handsomely decorated with flags and the men hearing torches.

Washington City Fire Department, headed by Chief Engineer Sessford, with Commissioners Thompson, Canfield, and Clarke, and Mr. Eckloff, clerk, followed by the entire department, three steamers, four hose carriages

Mr. Feckloff, clerk, followed by the entire de-partment, three steamers, four hose carriages and trucks, all finely decorated, the members all being in full uniform and numbering fifty. A wagon of the Adams Express Company, and one of the Harnden Express Company, each drawn by four horses and gaily deco-rated with flags.

The line of march was down Third street to Pennsylvania avenue and along the aven-

The line of march was down Third street to Pennsylvania avenue and along the avenue to the Executive Mansion. The side-walks along Pennsylvania avenue were filled with persons, and frequent cheers were given as the President and party passed.

AT THE PRESIDENT'S MODES

The Old Soldiers of the war of 1812 were assembled, and the guard composed of a detail from the 12th infantry, under Sergeant Mc-Kewen, of the 16th, with the police detail set in place by Sergeant Hurley, kept the crowd in order, while in the rear of the Mansion a battery of the 4th artillery, in charge of Major Stuart, fired a salute on the arrival of the party. the party.

The President and party, having alighted

THE PROCESSION.

Afits—Chief Marshal—Aids.
The military escort, consisting of Major General Emory and Staff.
First battalion 12th United States infantry, eight companies, headed by their band, under command of Major Stanhope.
Third battalion 12th United States infantry, with drum corps, under command of Colonel Wallace.
Fire companies. United States Marines, numbering about four hundred men, with the full Marine Band, under command of Major GR. Graham.
Three companies of the Fifth United States.

The grant Admiral Farragut and others, but those gentlemen not appearing, the various organizations marched off, and the crowd returned.

cavalry, with their mounted band, under command of Brevet Lieutenant Colonel Wesley Owens.

The President and Party, with the Reception Committee, in carriages.
Delegation of the Young Men's National Union Club, C. H. Snow, President, and Owen Thorn, Secretary.
Espeuta's Band.
The Corporate Authorities of Georgetown, marshaled by Mr. James Goddard.
The Corporate Authorities and a delegation of the citizens of Alexandria, Va. A HANDSOME BANNER.

The Corporate Authorities and a delegation of the citizens of Alexandria, Va.

The Resident Executive Committee of the Philadelphia Convention, with the delegation from Delaware to the same.

The Oldest Inhabitanta Association, headed by Vice President W. A. Bradley, and marshaled by Gen. Joseph H. Bradley, and
Mr. John F. Callan.

The Conservative Army and Navy Union, with a peat, hadge, and heaving in the life tors of the President and Directors of the road. It left Baltimore at 5.20,
the same over from Baltimore was the one lately
built for the use of the President and Directors of the road. It left Baltimore at 5.20,
the same over from Baltimore was the one lately
built for the use of the President and Directors of the road. It left Baltimore at 5.20,
the same over from Baltimore was the one lately
built for the use of the President and Directors of the road.

tors of the road. It left Haltimore at 5.20, Governor Swann and staff accompanying the Presidential party as far as Annapolis Junction, where a large crowd had assembled, who enthusiastically cheered the party. At Laurel, also, a crowd gathered, by which was displayed the motte, "Andrew Johnson and the Constitution;" and in passing Hiadensburg a number cheered the train.

GEN. GRANT is expected in Galena in Octo ber to witness the marriage of Cot. Babecok, of his staff, to a charming young lady of that city. The General's house is kept in excellent order and ready for occupation at any time. Visitors are always admitted.

NATIONAL THEATRE opens to-night! The

THE DEPARTMENTS.

The Revision of the Tariff.

The following letter of Instructions has been addressed by the Secretary of the Treasury to the Commissioner of the Revenue, in regard to the proposed revisions of the tariff at the next session of

To Hon. David W. Wells, United States Commissioner of Receiver.
Sin: In view of the fact that the revision of the To from Devict W. Wells, United Stokes Commissioner of Recember 19 (Recember 19 Recember 1

Disposal of Public Lands. The Commissioner of the General Land Offi has received returns from the land office at Ne-braska city for the month of August, which show that 7.141 acres were disposed of during that mouth, as follows: Under the Homesteed Law 4,309 acres; with Agricultural College scrip 2,153; with military bounty land warrants 560 acres, and the remainder for each. At the land office at 8t. Gloud, Minnesota, during the same month 18,720 Cloud, Minnesota, during the same mouse acres were taken up with agricultural college scrip. At the Stevens Point, Wisconsin, land office during the same period 1,949 acres were disposed of, 800 acres of which were located with Chippewa scrip, and the residue entered under the Important Decisions.

The Commissioner of Internal Revenue has decided that where a tax for grading streets, &c., in assessed by a municipal corporation, under municipal or other public laws, and payment thereof it made compulsory, the tax-payer is entitled to deduct the tax so paid in making return of his in Receipts from Customs from the lat to the 5th inst., were as follows: Boston, $406,673 92; Philadelphia, $233,710.25; Baltimors, $307,981.63; at New Orleans from August 27 to 31, were $59,626.23.

PARTERN POINT, Sept. 16.—The steamer Moravian, from Liverpool on the 6th via Londonderry on the 7th, passed the Point to-day, 6th had on board three hundred troops, detachments of different regiments, but chiefly of the Royal artilliery.
The cholera continued very prevalent in various parts of Italy. A large number of deaths daily at Geneva and other towns.
Various diplomatic changes are considered imminent in Parts. The dismissal of Drouya dai! Huys is the subject of much comment, and it is heliered would conduce to the preservation of peace. The Third National Bank of Baltimore has wit drawn its bonds for the security of Government de posits, and consequently ceases to be a depository for public moneys.

Payswys ... Two hundred and fourteen patent INTERNAL REVENUE. - The receipts from ource on Saturday last were $1,467,578.43.

Pen, Penetl, and Scissors To-Right! Ice Witch! opening of National Theatre!

conduct a series of experiments with 15-inch guas and rifled pieces of ordnance sgainst an iron-sisd stone target erected near the Fortress. A board of engineer officers has been appointed for the purpose, who will arrive this week and prosecute the experiments without delay. EVERY removed Postmaster wants Congress. Revenge is sweet. ... Boston Post, NEW OBLEANS is said to be the only city hat paid more income tax in 1866 than 1866 To-staur ! To-night! Ice Witch! Grand pening of National Theatre! The Soldiers' and Sallers' Convention

A wonen burnt to death in Manchester, England, by smoking her pipe in bed. Peace her ashes, says the Home Journal.

"No merit, no services, no talents ever elevate a man of color to a level with a whit man in this country."—Parson Brownlow.

Oss of the New York bulls turned bear ntilien by the operation.

GREELEY seems to have only one objection at the time when Greeley was a peace Republic THE PORTLAND Transcript tells a story illustrating the thieving carried on at the fire. It says a man and his wife who were burnt out and went over to the Cape to board, on being shown to their room, found it furnished with their own fur-THE Paris correspondent of the New York

Express says a report is current that there is a con-spiracy to take away Queen Isabella's life, and Williams addressed the President as follows:

'In the name of the survivors of the Associated Soldiers of the War of 1812, I tender to the Research of the War of 1812, I tender to the Research of the War of 1812, it is headed by the son of Gen. Ortega, who crack of the War of 1812, it is headed by the son of Gen. Ortega, who was shot in 1860 for having attempted the life of the Queen, and by the son of a shoemaker.

The Springfield Republican says the lady for whom Senator Summer, at rising 20 years of the President expressed himself gratified to meet soldiers of 1812, alluding to his having in his journey shaken hands with a man

Tuz great lake tunnel at Chicago will, in all probability, be completed next month, and preparations are now making for its formal opening

Ir is the duty of each member of the Mt. Holyoke Female Seminary to write an annual lette stating whether she is married or single, how many children she has, and other particulars concerning her status and progress. A young lady of the class of 1861 has just written to the class secretary that she is not married, but that she thinks she can see a little cloud that ariseth out of the sky of the future, like a man's hand.—Spring. Repub.

Francis Joseph Melancholy. The Tagesbericht, of Vienna, public the following:

The Ingreserical, of young, published the following:

The Emperor Francis Joseph, on the day of his fets, appeared exceedingly downcast. In the afternoon he summoned all the councillors of the crown and, with tears in his eyes, addressed them in the following terms:

"This is my fets day. Such occasions remind a man, even the highest placed, that he has made another step toward the tomb, and that he ought in future to do his best, according to his knowledge and his conscience. If my people have desires which are not yet realized, I will stretch out my hand to aid them. I do not wish my paternal intentions to be doubted. Speak frankly, gauttemen. What is the opinion which predominates among the populations?"

The ministers remained silent with the exception of one, who replied:

I ne ministers remained silent with the exception of one, who replied;

"Sire, to speak frankly, public opinion is in despair."

The same minister afterwards explained to his Majesty the wishes and fears which had taken root in the mind of the public. The Emperor dismissed his council with these words:

"All that state of things must choose the people of the company of the compa words:

"All that state of things must change, and soon the people shall fete my birthday gally." To-NIGHT! To-night! Ice Witch! Grand

BYTELEGRAPH The National Republican

French Minister to be Removed.

RUSSIA AND THE UNITED STATES

THE MARKETS, &c

THE JOHNSTOWN ACCIDENT

The Soldiers' Convention GEN. ROUSSEAU RE-ELECTED

THE CHOLERA APPAIRS ON THE CONTINENT OF EU [By the Cable to the associated Press.]
Lornox, Sept. 15 — There is a rumor of a diffi-culty between Italy and Austria on the subject of the debt of Venetia. It is said that Great Britain has urged the Porte to give an autonomy to the Crote, and that the Porte has refused. The trousquadron left the Russian waters to-day.

Moscow, Sept. 15.—The Gasette artels the allance between the United States and Russia.

BRILLY, Sept. 15.—Count Bismarck has sent letter of thanks to the United States Minister, as knowledging the kindness of the American residents who furnished fifty tons of lee for the wound ed in the hospitals.

Panis, Sept. 15.—It is expected that the circular which the Emperor Napoleon is about to imp to the Powers of Europe will be very pacific in it

THE LATEST.

LIVERPOOL, Sept. 15 ... The cotton market is Middling uplands, 13d. The breadstuffs marke is generally firm. Mixed Western corn is quoted at quoted at 80) for money, a decline of } per cent.

The latest current quotations for America

ecurities are as follows: U. S. 5-20's, 721; Erie

Foreign News by Steamer—Troops Arriving in Canada—Choiers in Italy—Diplomatic Changes in Paris. FARTHER POINT, Sopt. 16.—The steamer Mors-

CLEVELAND, Sept. 16.—Not over three hundred delegates to the Soldiers' and Salbers' Convention have yet arrived. Not enough to give any indication of the spirit or intention of the Convention. The morning trains and boats will give large accessions. There are complaints of coolness of reception to ward the deligates, no formal reception to-ward the deligates, no formal reception being given them. The executive committee have their rooms at the Kenwood House and will be in session to-night. The temporary organisation will take place as 2 p. m. to-morrow by which time all the delega-tions will have arrived.

tions will have arrived.

Interesting News tress Hayts.
NEW York, Sept. 16.—The Herold's Cape Hayties correspondence says General Galnave had been captured by General Calvel, and was soon to be ex-couted, by order of President Geffrard. It was con-ceded that his death would not in any way impede the revolutionary movement, which is merely to de-pose Geffrard, who has assumed distatorial powers, Another War in Europe Threatened. Naw York, Sept. 16.—The Tribums to-morrow will publish a special dispatch from Berlin by the Increase of Cholers in New York.

ave deaths In Brooklyn one death and four cases were re-

Gen. Rosseau Re-elected to Congress.
LOUISVILLE, Sept. 16.—Gen. Resseau was elected a Congress from this district yesterday. No oppo-

Cholera in Rashville.

Namville, Sept. 16.—Thirteen cases and deaths from cholera were reported yesterday.

The National Union Convention of Soldier and Saltors.

Several Rems of News from Canada.

Offawa, C. W., Sept. 14.—A proclamation has been issued abolishing the free ports of the Saulie St. Marie and Gaspe.

A camp for the volunteers of Lower Canada will be opganised immediately in the neighborhood of Sherburn, on the line of the Grand Trunk Reil-

and elect a new President by universal suffrage

451; Ilifnois Central, 781.

changed; sales to-day sum up 13,000 bales.

From California.

From California.

Fax Prancisco, Sept 14. The first plees of all goods made in California was received at the State Fair at Sacramento yesterday. The trial of Capt, Charles K. Niekols, for adding and abetting in the beating of Charles Storm, a salior on the ship Reaben, during the voyage from New York to this port, is now progressing in the Upited States Districts Court.

The testimony is conficient, two negroes ownering strongly one way, and the captain as strongly the other. The case has been continued to procure another witness. NEWS BY THE CABLE Prospective War the other. The case has been continued to procure another witness.

Attempted Charivari — A Youth Killed by the Bridge Falker.

Madisor, Wite Sep. 12.—At a contemplated charivari last stiplt in honor of the marriage of an old man baned Williams, to the young daughter of David Holton, of Blue Mound, Hotter disharped a gun full in the face of a young lad massed Theron Drydes, son of Nat. Dryden, before any Emalved demonstrations had been made. The lad was badly burt and cannot receiver. Shots were also fixed by Williams, and others were injured.

Democratic Nominations.

Dernott, Micri, Sept. 12. The democracy of this district to-day nominated Hon John L Chipman, of this city, the congressional vote in the convention standing 35 out of 40. The national committee inderest the nomination after some conference.

In the 2d district National Union Convention, held at Riles, to-day, Hon. Heary F. Severus was mominated for Congress, and the Democratic Convention which met in the same city to-day, indered him, and made no separate nomination.

Prem South Carolina.

Columbia, S. O., Sept. 15.—Forther legislation on the negro code was postponed until the regular session. Resolutions were introduced and referred to the Committee on Pederal Relations requesting the President to Inform the military officially that the war is ended in South Carolina; also requesting the discontinuance of provest courts and the restriction of the jurisdiction of the military courts within the limits prescribed by the articles of war.

From California.

San Francisco, Sept. 15.—Jore Gedely, the Mexican consul, has issued an invitation to all Mexican residents to participate to-day in the culciration of the 56th anniversary of Mexican independence.

Sandwich Izisand dates to the 25th of August report the river at Illio at a rise of thirty feet, sweeping away a pier of selid masonry?

ployer.

Borron, Sep. 15. —Adolph Pragur, a dealer in furnishing goods, received three shots from a revolver this afternoon, fired by one of his clerks named Frank W. Rounds. The shooting was done in a crowded street and created much excisement. The cause is unknown. Prager was taken to a hospital and will probably recover. Rounds was taken to jail for trial.

The National Telegraphic Union.

Baltimons, Sept. 14.—The delegates to the National Telegraphic Union Convention were the recipients of a grand banquest at the Butaw House this evening, given them by the members of the Baltimore district.

The Philadelphia Convention Endersed.

Macon, Ga., Sept. 15.—A large meeting was held here, and resolutions passed endersing the proceedings of the Philadelphia Convention, and commending the wisdom and patriotism of President Johnson. Sentence of the Orters Murderers

Naw York, Bept. 14.—Gonsales and Pillieler, convicted of the murder of Senor Orters, in Brook-lyn, in November last, have been centenced to be hanged on the 12th of October next. The Assident at Johnstown. Prom Portress Monroe-testillery Experi-ments at Old Point.

Forrass Monnon, Sept. 16.—A heavy ensterly wind with indications of stormy weather prevails to-day. About forty sails of wassis and the steamer Thames from Washington or New York.

PHILADRIPHIA, Sept. 15. By the secident at lohastown twolve persons were crushed to death and ninety others were wounded. New Orleans, Sep. 15.—It is expected that there will be a large emigration from Massissippi to Texas this fall. Some will got of Bessil. From Louisiana there will be emigration to Honduras.

NATIONAL THEATER opens to-night! The

The President and the Union Party
-The President's Declarations. The President's Decinrations.
Under this head, Mr. Baymond, writes as follows, in reply to "Horaco Greeley, Esq."

2.7." My object in this note is to state certain facts within my personal knowledge, which led me then and which lead me still, to believe that, throughout the winter, the President did not wish to break with the Union party, and that he had no thought or purpose of "seeking a further lease of pow-purpose of "seeking a further lease of pow-er," through the favor and support of its ensures or otherwise. purpose of "seaming a tracter tease of power," through the favor and support of its ensumes or otherwise.

I conversed freely, though not frequently, with the President upon the action of the Union party in Congress during the winter. While I never presumed to urge upon him unduly any views of my own, I never failed to express my sense of the importance of relying upon the liberal members of the party for such action as the good of the country might require, and I repeatedly told him that, while there was astrong conviction in the party that his mode of restoring peace and harmony to the Union was the only one that was practicable, a great obstacle to its adoption was found in the fear that he was going over to the Democratic party, in which, as a political organization, the country had lost confidence.

as a political organization, the country and lost confidence.

He never failed in response to say that all He never failed in response to say that all such apprehensions were utterly unfounded —that he had no such purpose or thought, and that he relied with confidence on the judgment and good sense of the party which elected him, to whose principles and policy as declared at Baltimore he should rigidly adhere. He said the action of the Democratic party as a programmation during the war.

lected him, to whose principles and policy and certain of Yone, Sept 16.—Seven new cases of a were reported in this city yesterday and seaths Brooklyn one death and four cases were red.

Brooklyn one f The National Union Convention of Soldiers and Sallors.

CLEVELARD, Sept. 15...Preparations for the Soldiers and Sallors' Convention, which is to meet here on Monday, are nearly completed. Tents for from three to four thousand delegates are ready in Monument Squars. The arrivals up to the present are not heavy, but fo-sight and to-morrow they will be largely increased.

General Steedman and Committee of Arrangements are in consultation to-sight, and the programme will probably be settled upon this svening. Governor Bramiette, of Kentucky, General John E. Wool, General McCook, and General Custer are already here. The indications point to General Wool as the temporary chairman and General Steedman as permanent president. Beyond this, little as yet is indicated as to the course of the Convention, though it is the general impression that but ittle speech-making will be done.

Several Itams of News from Canada.

again unite on common ground, and work together for common objects. Yours, &c., H. J. RAYNOND,

From Nebrasha — Democratic Nominations for Congress — Petition that Gen. Coree be Appendixed Governor.

PLATTEMOUTH, NEB., Sept. 12.—The democratic territorial convention nominated J. Starting Morton for Delegate in Congress, and A. Paddock for member of the Fortieth Congress under the State. It also soloped the following:

Received, That this convention semestry request